Future INA Conventions:

1981-Des Moines Coin Club, Host
Des Moines Marriott Hotel
September 25, 26, 27

President's Message

Dear INA Members:

As I write this, the summer seems to have gone by so fast. I hope all of you have had an opportunity to enjoy at least a few coin club meetings and coin shows this season in between vacations, picnics and a host of other summer time-consuming activities.

Plans are being finalized for what promises to be a first-rate convention in Des Moines this fall. If you have not already done so, I urge you to set aside the weekend of September 25-27 and come to Des Moines. With the ANACS Counterfeiting Seminar, large selection of bourse dealers, and the inclusion of one of the largest collections of Iowa national bank notes on display in a non-competitive fashion, this promises to have 'something for everyone' in terms of collecting interests. The Society of Paper Money people, as well as leading hobby newspapers are expected to be represented. Also, the Hickman-Oakes Auctions of Iowa City are holding a unique auction Saturday consisting of only 'Iowa' material — national currency, Iowa half dollars, old county history books, Iowa Civil War tokens, etc. Be sure to check this out upon your arrival.

The lower bullion prices have made some collector coins look interesting again to some of us 'old timers' — now might be a great time to add a piece to the gold type set or even start a set of circulated Barbers, etc. Remember, you, the collector, ultimately benefit from adjustments in the market place.

Have an enjoyable summer, and I'll look forward to seeing each and all in Des Moines in September.

Don

From The Secretary's Desk:

Soon after you read this we'll be at the State Show. Stop by my desk and introduce yourself if we haven't met. It's a more interesting job being able to put a face with a name.

The Des Moines Club has a good meeting schedule planned for us at the State Show at the new Marriott Hotel in Des Moines. We don't have an invitation for the State Show for 1982. Would your club be willing to host the State Convention? There are many willing to help any way we can to club hosting.

The Paper Money Show at Okoboji starts out the State's listing of Coin Shows. I hope you get your Annual Show listed in the bulletin and that it proves to be a very successful show! The listing of your show should go to the editor whose address is on the first page of the bulletin. Sending it to me delays the printing of your date if the deadline is past for that publication.

I had a question on when dues are due. The By-laws say the first of January, but it has always been the custom that you can pay your dues at the State Show to save all the postage.

He have on a silent auction this year medals from the Kenny Benedict estate. Nine All-alike from medalic art as pictured on the bulletin cover. These will be on the secretary's desk for your bid.

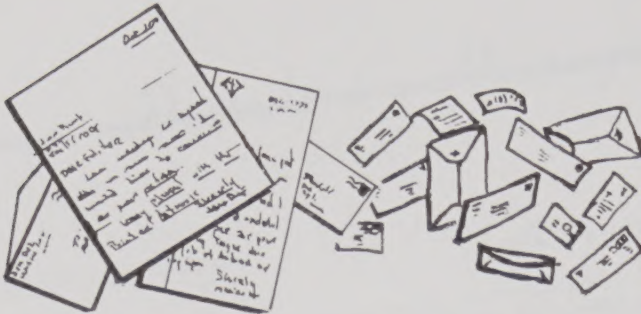

Anxious for the State Show to renew friendships, I remain,

Your Secretary-Treasurer
JoAnn Peters

DEADLINE DATE

The deadline date for the December publication of the Iowa Collector will be November 1. Please have all material to me before this time.

Thanks,
Marcy

A NUMISMATIST'S TEN COMMANDMENTS

There has been infrequent revival of a set of numismatic 10 commandments, drafted initially by Albert H. Wick in 1943, a Missouri numismatic leader, and reprinted occasionally by coin clubs over the country in their bulletins.

Winter months allow time for reflection, so we thought it time to repeat the wisdom of Mr. Wick for Coin World readers:

I. BECOME A NUMISMATIST

If you have that interest and desire to collect coins, then become a real numismatist. Join a local coin club, to trade and meet friends interested in the same hobby. Become a member of the American Numismatic Association.

III. BE A PRACTICAL NUMISMATIST

At some moment you will decide which coins most interest you. Specialize in them. Complete their series in the best condition available. Those less desirable coins will be replaced in better condition at your first opportunity. When you have completed a series, start another. Many a collector has started with cents. Don't be a junk collector. Be aware of stragglers, coins which do not fit into your collection. Remember, you are a numismatist.

IV. RESPECT YOUR COINS

Keep them properly in an album, or in cases, in proper protective materials, tarnish-proof. Always handle a coin by its edge and not its surface. When you acquire a coin, properly mark and catalog it. Save the old envelope for future reference. Never clean a Proof or Uncirculated coin. Remember, you have fine old coins in your collection today because the other fellow, a hundred years ago, properly took care of his, and you have a similiar duty to perform.

V. RESPECT YOUR COLLECTION

Don't envy the big collector. He was small once, too, but has been at it a little longer than you have. Only the plutocrat can collect all the Proof sets. You may be getting more pleasure out of your circulated Indians than he is from his Patterns. And besides, they are easier to get. Keep at it long enough and you will have a big collection.

VI. RESPECT YOUR HOBBY

Don't get excited. Don't rush. You are in it from now on. Select your coins carefully and wisely. You need not fill that board overnight. When you bid on coins in an auction, don't bid them all low in hopes of catching a sleeper and end up with none at all. Get a coin as reasonable as possible but respect the other fellow, too. To acquire a good numismatic treatise will give you as much pleasure as adding a new coin.

VII. RESPECT YOUR FELLOW NUMISMATISTS

Either have a good word for the other collector, or say nothing at all. Don't talk scandal, or knock the other man's collection. That only belittles you and gives him free publicity. He collects what he wants; you collect what you like.

VIII. DEAL WITH A NUMISMATIST

Become acquainted with reputable dealers through your club meetings or by mail (or through Coin World — Editor). By following the other club meetings throughout the country, . . . you will learn the names of those prominent. Write them, know them. They may specialize in coins you are collecting, and can help you. You will find them fair.

IX. HELP OTHER NUMISMATISTS

Learn all you can about coins, so that you can talk intelligently about them to others. If you know something of value, tell your friends at the club. Any help you can give to a new or prospective collector will repay you many times in added pleasure. A kind word or deed pays compound interest. Bring new members into your club. Do everything you know that will be an uplift to the honorable hobby of numismatics.

X. BE A GOOD NUMISMATIST

Be fair. Be honest. Be patient. If you find yourself in a position of selling coins, do not take unfair advantage of your buyer. You're not trading horses. State truthfully what you know or believe about the condition of the coin. To overcharge may mean the loss of both a friend and a customer.

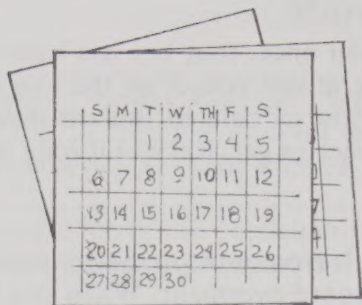

If you are buying, don't expect it for nothing, explaining that it isn't rare or worth much, only to find after it becomes yours that it is "exceedingly rare, worth plenty", and soak it to the next one.

If you are buying or selling from a dealer, bear in mind that he must have a certain fair margin between buying and selling to work on, so be reasonable, fair and considerate. What is still better, be wise to the true value of the coin in question by knowledge.

By knowing through study of facts, statistics and prices exactly what a coin is and has been priced by dealers over a period of years, you are in a position to know its fair value.

In short, BE A NUMISMATIST!

(The "II. BE A NUMISMATIST" was printed in the last issue of The Iowa Collector".

I. N. A. SHOW

The Iowa Numismatic Association Annual Convention will be held on September 25-26-27. The planning committee has decided on a 3-day format at Iowa's newest convention facility — the Marriott in downtown Des Moines.

The highlight of the convention will be an auction conducted by Hickman and Oakes of Iowa City with a novel approach. It will be an all-Iowa auction, featuring numismatic material and related exnumia.

Other activities include a 3-day ANACS Counterfeit Seminar, a 10-dealer bourse, exhibits and an Award and Recognition Breakfast. Speaker for the Breakfast on Sunday will be Ralph D. Hardman, Jr., currently serving as president of the Central States Numismatic Society.

2ND IOWA GREAT LAKES COIN AND PAPER MONEY SHOW

Plans have been finalized for the 2nd Annual Iowa Great Lakes Coin and Paper Money Show and Seminar August 29 and 30 at beautiful Lake Okoboji. A special attraction to all collectors is the Higgins Paper Money Museum, located right across from the airport in Okoboji. The welcome is out at the Museum and special tours will be conducted daily, with hours from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. — free admission.

A special paper money program will be presented both days of the show in the main auditorium of the Higgins Museum, Airport Road, Okoboji. At 2:00 p.m. Saturday John T. Hickman, Curator of the Higgins Museum will be the speaker with his topic, "National Bank Notes — History In Your Hands". John, a resident of West Des Moines, Iowa, is recognized throughout the hobby as a foremost authority on National Bank Notes and their history. Following John Hickman's discussion of National Bank Notes, Don Mark of Adel, Iowa will give a brief discussion of National Bank Notes Collecting from a collector's point of view. Presently president of the statewide organization of numismatists, the Iowa Numismatic Association, 30-year old Mark has been involved in coin and paper money collecting for over half of those years. The program will be repeated Sunday at the same time.

A two-day buy-sell-trade show and bourse will be held at the Lodge on Brooks Golf Course August 29-30. Show hours are 10:00 a.m. till 5:00 p.m. on Saturday and 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. on Sunday. About 30 dealers from several midwestern states will be on hand with tables; buying, selling, and appraising coins and paper money and offering investment advice. There is free admission to all events and the general public is urged to attend.

Plan now to attend this family show, and enjoy all of the attractions at the Iowa Great Lakes — plan to come and spend several days.

Members of the Society of Paper Money Collectors will meet informally during this event as time and schedules permit.

The event is sponsored by the Clarion, Iowa Coin Club. For further information contact Chairman Don Watts, 216 North Main Street, Clarion, Iowa 50525. Ph. 515-532-3560.
